

Volleyball Australia High Performance Programs and the National Junior Women's Program are running an AUS National Junior Women's (NJW) Camp in Adelaide, South Australia from Sunday April 4th - Friday April 9th.

The best young female volleyball athletes from around Australia have been invited to participate in this Training Camp which is targeted towards athletes born in:

1992 / 1993 ('92 Squad - U/19)

1994 / 1995 ('94 Squad - U/17)

The purpose of this National Training Camp is to continue to further develop the systems used by our National Teams during international competition while identify players for selection into the Australian team for representation to Asian Youth Championships (April) and Asian Junior Championships (September). Appointed National Team Coaches (senior, junior and youth) will be in attendance to conduct training sessions.

Immediately following this Selection camp Volleyball Australia will commence the Australian Beach Volleyball Squad Camp April 10th - 14th

Volleyball Victoria wishes to Congratulation to the following Victorian Athletes.
